BIOGRAPHY

Josh Rutherford is a screenwriter turned fiction storyteller that has wanted to be a writer all his life. His experience growing up in a multigenerational, multiracial environment inspired him to create characters that are diverse and complex while addressing sensitive issues of race, ethnicity, and class. Follow Rutherford to learn more about his latest fantasy series, The Fourpointe Chronicles, and how he strives to present a better representation of inclusivity in literary circles. When he's not writing, Josh enjoys spending time with his wife and two boys in their hometown of Austin, TX.

MY GIFT TO YOUR AUDIENCE

Greater Afari Guide & Map: The fantasy world of Greater Afari is full of iconic symbols from the Middle Ages. The imagery is familiar and evocative, from castles and fortresses to knights and warhorses. But this is not simply a world that resembles Medieval Europe. It is a land in the midst of great change, as nations compete for power and influence. In this world, mixed-heritage people like me are challenged to find their place in the world. We must overcome our doubts and insecurities to make peace with our varied heritage. Only then can we carve out a place for ourselves in this fascinating and complex world.
